Potential Optional Excursions

**CAVEAT**

- As these are optional excursions, and some of them are pre-paid, if something goes awry (ie: strikes), it is unlikely that you will get your money back.
- Having said that, in over twenty years and innumerable optional excursions, I've never had one not work out.
- Prices are approximate due to currency fluctuations and the time between now and trip departure.
- You could do even more optional excursions, but it would mean that you would have to do a customized trip, and that would necessitate a price increase.
