

ALEX SCHAAP MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose/Sponsor:

Alex Schaap was a student and, later, a parent in the Calgary Christian School community. He was a man of integrity, known for his ability to think “outside the box” to use technology in creative and innovative ways. This annual award will be presented to a Grade 12 student who is entering post-secondary training in the field of technology. The recipient will be an exceptionally creative, innovative and resourceful person who is skilled with technology and demonstrates an enthusiasm for learning.

Value: $1,000.00 annually

Application

Interested applicants should submit the following:

- * a letter outlining their qualifications for the Scholarship
- * two reference letters
- * if possible, an example of their creative technological skills
